For the Financial Year 2019-2020, Levendale was allocated a total of £4,260 in Pupil Premium funding, plus LAC Pupil Premium of £1,400. There is therefore a total PPG allocation of £5,660 for the current financial year.

The money is identified within a separate cost centre in the school's budget and regular updates are given to the Governing Body as to spending from this cost centre.

As of 4th September 2019, current planned spending for 2019-2020 is:

Allocation	Costing	Projected Impact
Dedicated withdrawal intervention support for PP children either 1:1 or small group.	£1,500 across 2017/2018 financial year	Identified needs are met through targeted intervention. Progress is enhanced for PP children.
In-class 1:1 or small group support for PP children.	£2,360 across 17/18	Increased outcomes/accelerated progress for PP children.
Resourcing for specific areas of needs within AoL in EY.	~£150	Enhanced provision and outcomes in specific AoL for EYPP (post-LAC) children.
1:1 support	£1400	1:1, small group work and whole-class support to facilitate SEMH needs and integration in mainstream.
Payments made to allow PPG children to attend school trips/residentials	£250	Inclusion in the wider life of the school
£5,660 allocated for financial year 2019-2020 EYPP for post-LAC will be earmarked once confirmation of amount has been received
